

USER: I wonder what the heron speared.

ASSISTANT (1): T

ASSISTANT (2): T

ASSISTANT (3): T

USER: I wonder what speared the fish.

ASSISTANT (1): T

ASSISTANT (2): T

ASSISTANT (3): T

USER: What did you say the heron speared?

ASSISTANT (1): T

ASSISTANT (2): T

ASSISTANT (3): T

USER: What did you say speared the fish?

ASSISTANT (1): F- The correct sentence should be "What did you say speared the fish?"

ASSISTANT (2): F-Because the phrase "you say speared the fish" is not clear or grammatically correct. A more grammatically correct sentence could be "Who did you say speared the fish?" or "What did you say speared the fish with?".

ASSISTANT (3):F-The sentence is unclear about who or what is supposed to have speared the fish. A more grammatical sentence could be: "What did you say speared the fish?" or "Who did you say speared the fish?"

What did you say it was that speared the fish?

ASSISTANT (1): T

ASSISTANT (2): T

ASSISTANT (3): T

USER: What did you say you saw spear the fish?

ASSISTANT (1): T

ASSISTANT (2): T

ASSISTANT (3): T

USER: What did you say you saw spearing the fish?

ASSISTANT (1): T

ASSISTANT (2): T

ASSISTANT (3): T

USER: What did you say you saw the heron spear?

ASSISTANT (1): F- The sentence should be, "Where did you say you saw the heron spear?"

ASSISTANT (2): F- The correct sentence should be "Where did you say you saw the heron spear?" or "What did you say you saw the heron spearing?" The original sentence is missing either a noun to be the object of the verb "spear" or a preposition to indicate location.

ASSISTANT (3): F-Extra "the" in the sentence. The correct sentence would be "What did you say you saw heron spear?"

USER: What was it you said you saw the heron spear?

ASSISTANT (1): F-The sentence is missing a word for clarification. It should be "What was it you said you saw the heron spear with?"

ASSISTANT (2): F-The sentence is missing a preposition separating the two actions. A correct version could be: "What was it you said you saw the heron spear?"

ASSISTANT (3): T

USER: I wonder what Louise thought the heron speared.

ASSISTANT (1): T

ASSISTANT (2): T

ASSISTANT (3): T